The truth is I know how to answer all the questions in the exam. But, since my father has became like that, I started to dread exams more and more...
Every time I get the exam papers, I will involuntarily become nervous.
You fear the exams?
That is...I've taught you for so many years. How come I didn't know about this?

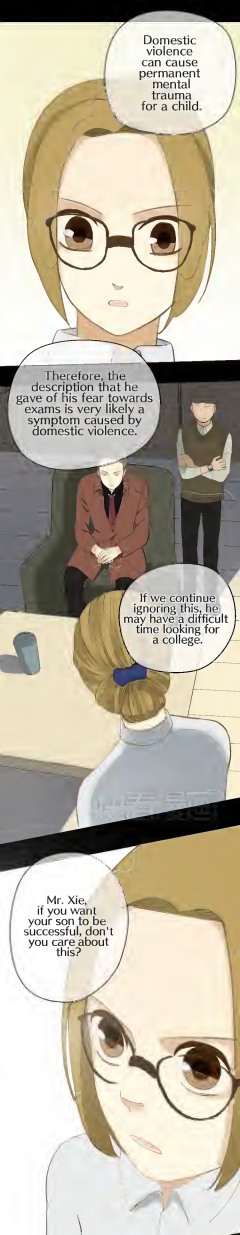
Chapter 24

Author/Qing Ting
Producer/Kuaikan manhua

Xie Yulin, you're a good student, and I have always trusted you.
High school schedules are very full. If you don't pass the third year of high school well, then you'll suffer in the future.
If you don't like your father, why are you lying to me like this?

Xie Yulin is not that kind of child.

Have all of you teachers underestimated the seriousness of domestic abuse?
STEPS



Domestic violence can cause permanent mental trauma for a child.
Therefore, the description that he gave of his fear towards exams is very likely a symptom caused by domestic violence.
If we continue ignoring this, he may have a difficult time looking for a college.
Mr. Xie, if you want your son to be successful, don't you care about this?

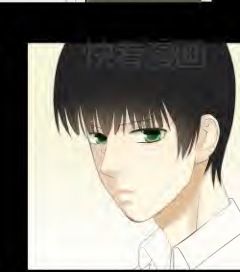
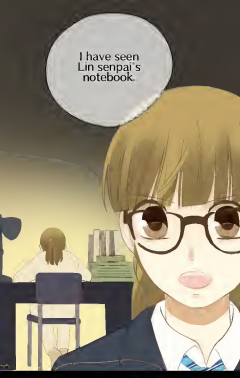
Ahem, you don't have to...

I am the school's psychologist. My duty is to care for the students.
Moreover-

I believe my daughter's words.

Lin Fan?





I have seen Lin senpai's notebook.

After encountering this problem and how it was done, no matter if it's right or wrong, I'm speechless...

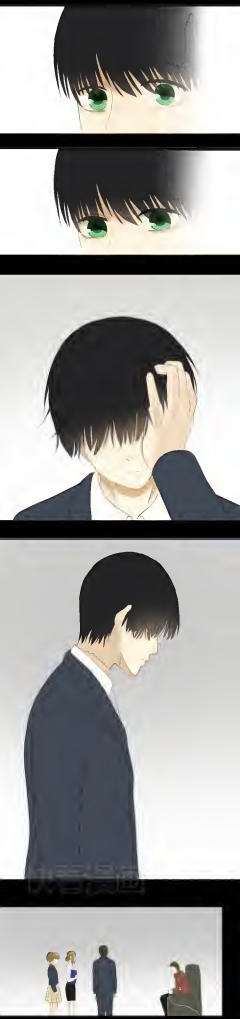
Ah, this person is too awesome.
And this thickness... if it's arranged well, it could be published.

That book is absolutely better than the textbooks and way easier to understand.

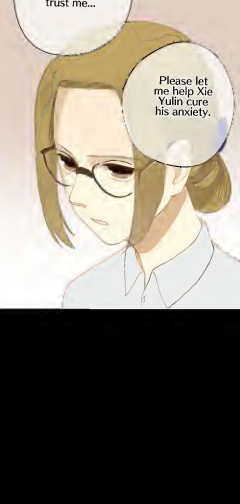
I think that Lin senpai is the type of person who cares more about academic performance than anyone else.

...He cares too much.

It seems like something is forcing him to be like this.



.....If the matter of Mr. Xie exercising domestic violence is true...
Please stop these actions immediately.



In addition, if Mr. Xie can trust me...
Please let me help Xie Yulin cure his anxiety.

This is the third week of treatment..
Now, do you feel nervous when you do the exams?

The people who walk on wires, if they only look at what's below them, they'll repeatedly imagine that they'll fall.

It's likely that you'll even lose the strength to stand firmly.

Instead of fearing the failure that hasn't happened yet, it's better to focus on how to accomplish it.

How can you not think about failure?

My goal...?
